to Be From El Paso, Is Ground to Death.

Clint, Tex., Dec. 6.—The body of W. C. Gast, who was run over and killed by a fast freight train at Clint, was removed to El Paso by an El Paso undertaker, who was called to Clint by the local order of Woodmen of the World, of which the deceased was a member in good standing, according to cards found on the body. The body was cut into three pieces, the heavy freight train having passed over it before it could be stopped. His widow is said to be living at El Paso. Mr. Gast carried a card of the local electrical workers' union of El Paso, also one showing him to have been a Moose. His former home is said to have been in Boulder, Colo.

Wednesday of this week was observed in Clint and vicinity as "Good Roads" day, the valley folk turning out en masse to work the roads near Clint. Several pieces of the bridge were repaired and put in good condition, but the main street of Clint which was macadamized several years ago, remains in very bad condition, and it is expected the county authorities will put the resurfacing gang at work on it.

The premises were thoroughly ransacked, two good suits of clothes and two pairs of shoes, besides shirts and other wearing apparel were taken, also a valuable watch, which belonged to Mrs. Murphy.

Mrs. J. B. Robertson, formerly of this place, but who now resides at the mines near Sierra Blanca, came up to purchase groceries and other supplies for their new home. Mrs. Robertson reports the family well satisfied with the change.

A FOND MOTHER WRITES:
"I CANNOT PRAISE PERUNA ENOUGH."Mrs. Amber Norris
Thinks all Mothers Should Keep Peruna at Home.

A NEGLECTED COUGH—TRIED MANY REMEDIES.

Mrs. Amber Norris, R. R. 1, Ashley, Ohio, writes: "I will endeavor to write you a few lines in regard to your good medicine, Peruna. I am proud to say that I am positive Peruna cured our little boy, aged two years, of a cough which lasted with him all winter. Tried all kinds of medicine, without relief. We got a bottle of Peruna and he ceased coughing immediately."

"I cannot praise it enough, and I will advise every mother to keep Peruna at hand for children or adults, for I believe it will cure a good many diseases where doctor's medicine fails."

Catarrh Causes Cough.
Cough is always dependent upon a cause. The cause is generally catarrhal congestion of the bronchial tubes.

Peruna in Tablet Form.
For some people Peruna in tablet form is more convenient and desirable than in the fluid form.

With Some Sound Advice, which Was Followed with Gratifying Results.

Nettleton, Ark.—"My troubles date back five years," says Mrs. Mary Bentley, of this town. "I was first taken with awful pains in my right side, headache, and backache. The pain from my side seemed to move down my right limb, and settled in the right knee. Then it would move back, and once a month I would almost die with pain."

I was told I had tumor, and would have to undergo an operation at once. It just seemed I could not submit to it. I often prayed to die. It seemed that nothing would give me the desired relief, until finally, I was advised by a friend to try Cardui, and it is undoubtedly curing me. I have only used three and a half bottles, and it is a pleasure to tell of the beneficial results.

I shall ever spread the good tidings of what Cardui has done for me, and will do for other suffering ladies, if they will only try it."

You can depend on Cardui, because Cardui is a gentle, harmless, vegetable tonic, that can do you nothing but good.
